God's Love is So Wonderful

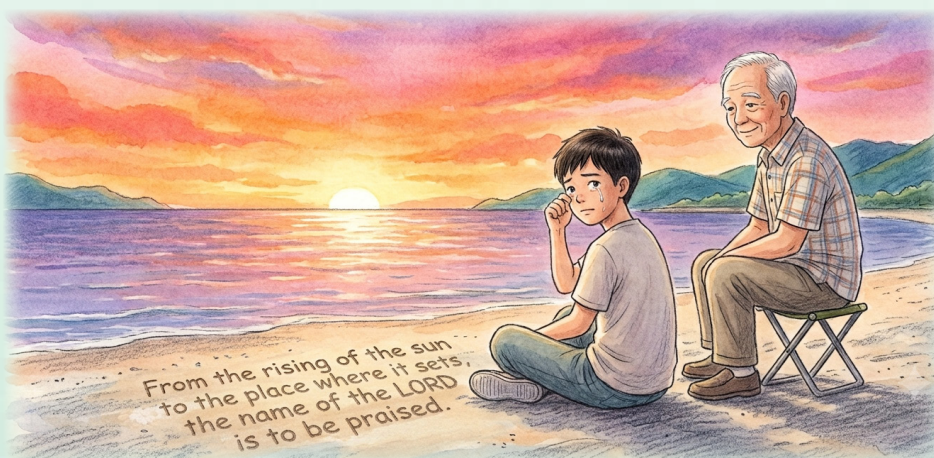

Class: 6A Name: Hui Ting Hei

Have you ever felt God's love? The first time I truly experienced it was last summer, during a time when my world felt quite dark. After a heated argument with my best friend, I felt incredibly upset and lonely. It felt as though a heavy cloud was hanging over me, so I decided to head to the beach to clear my head.

As I sat on the cool, grainy sand, I watched the sun begin its slow descent. An elderly man sitting nearby must have noticed my slumped shoulders and teary eyes. He didn't intrude, but he offered a gentle, compassionate smile that felt like a warm hug. He softly remarked, "Sometimes the world makes us feel like things are hard, but there is always beauty provided to remind us that we are deeply loved."

At that exact moment, the sky transformed into a breathtaking masterpiece of orange, pink, and purple hues. His words, combined with the glowing sunset, acted as a sudden wake-up call. I realized that God's love isn't only found in grand, booming miracles; it is also tucked away in these quiet, shimmering moments. That kind stranger was like a messenger, and the stunning view was a reminder that I am never truly alone, even when I am facing trouble.

That day taught me that God's love is constantly surrounding us, waiting to be noticed. It lives in the magnificent details of nature, the unexpected kindness of strangers, and the small, simple things that make our hearts feel warm and secure. I am profoundly thankful for this love that found me when I was at my lowest. It turned my loneliness into peace. Have you ever paused to feel that love in your own life?

God's Love is So Wonderful

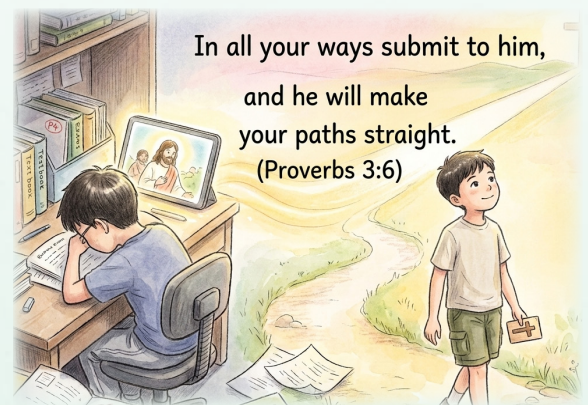

Class: 6A Name: Ma Ho Yin

Have you ever wondered how wonderful God's love is? Do you remember the first time you felt His grace? Perhaps it was when you first saw the beauty of a sunset or felt the care of people around you.

Before I first experienced God's grace, I was unimaginably stressed by my schoolwork in Primary 4. The pressure around me was so intense that I felt almost depressed. To relieve my stress, I started watching videos online, and one of them happened to be about Jesus. At first, I didn't care much about it, but as I watched more, I decided to follow God's path and finally felt His love.

As I began my journey with Him, He helped me manage my emotions and stay positive. This reminds me of Proverbs 3:6, which says, "In all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight." Whenever I felt hopeless because of my mistakes, God always reminded me of Philippians 4:13: "I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength." This encouraged me to face every challenge and helped me succeed in life.

After hearing my story, will you sincerely and humbly accept God into your life? Do you realize how much He loves you? I have shared how His love changed my life, and I am truly thankful for His grace. As it says in John 3:16: "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

God's love is a constant, listening presence, and I have felt it move through my life in the most incredible way. For a long time, I carried a quiet hope in my heart to live in a new home—a place of peace and new beginnings. Then came the day I will never forget.

My parents called me into the room, their faces glowing with a mixture of exhaustion and pure joy. My father's hands trembled slightly as he held out a set of shiny new keys, while my mother's eyes filled with tears of relief and triumph. When they finally spoke the words—'We did it, we have a new home'—it felt as though the weight of years of hard work had finally been lifted. In that moment, I realized that God had not only heard my whispers but had used my parents' sacrifice and dedication to grant my wish.

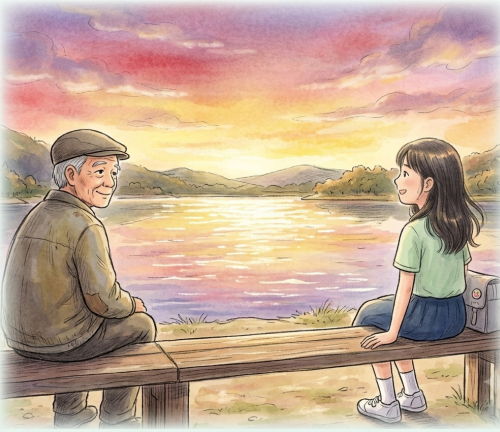

I am overwhelmed with delight and gratitude. This house is more than just a building; it is a sanctuary where I can see God's faithfulness in every corner. I will always be grateful for my beautiful new home and for the precious family who made it possible. As Psalm 138:2 says: 'I will bow down toward your holy temple and will praise your name for your unfailing love and your faithfulness'.

Feeling God's Love through the Beauty of Our Motherland

Class: 6A Name: Lee Pui Yi

Have you ever experienced God's love in your life? Last summer, I had a truly special experience during a life-changing trip to Mainland China. Before the journey, I had a serious argument with my best friend. The conflict left me feeling incredibly upset and lonely, as if a heavy shadow was following me everywhere. However, the breathtaking scenery of our vast country eventually helped me realize that God's love is always around us.

One evening, I sat quietly on a wooden bench by a shimmering lake, watching the sunset. The sky was a magnificent canvas filled with vibrant shades of crimson, gold, and purple. The view was so grand and peaceful that it made my personal problems feel small and insignificant. An elderly man sitting nearby noticed my slumped shoulders and gave me a gentle, fatherly smile. He whispered, "Look at this magnificent land; it is a gift that reminds us we are cherished."

His words struck a chord in my heart. I began to understand that the stunning beauty of our Motherland is actually a reflection of God's wonderful creation. Through the tranquil landscape and that stranger's unexpected kindness, I felt a wave of comfort wash over me. It was as if God was using the beauty of the land to give me a warm hug.

That day taught me a valuable lesson. God's love is not only found in big, booming miracles but also in the splendor of nature and the warmth of our people. I am truly thankful for the majestic beauty of our Motherland and God's endless grace which restored my peace of mind. Have you ever paused to appreciate the wonders in our country and felt that same love?

God's Love is So Wonderful

When I saw the warm sunset, I first felt God's love, because God is the reason why this world is so wonderful. When did you first feel God's love?

I still remember five years ago, I changed to a new school. At the time, I felt very uneasy and worried, so I prayed to God. God answered me with a gentle breeze. I prayed to God every day since that evening. I felt a lot better. I gradually made some new friends, and they helped me adapt to the new environment. My academic results turned out even better than I had expected.

As the Bible says, 'He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.'

I am truly thankful for God's love.

I am always grateful to God. I think I am blessed all the time.

Last summer, I went to Japan with my family. On the last day, we went to a busy district full of locals and tourists. After we finished our dinner, we went to play catch machine. We were lucky that we could successfully picked a few big dolls. As my father and my little sister wanted to play a bit longer, he asked my mom and I to take the bags of souvenirs and the dolls back to the hotel first. As my mom was already carrying lots of things, I helped her carry her wrist bag. When I was going to cross the street, someone patted my shoulder. When I looked back, it was a middle-aged Japanese man. He was holding my passport! We could hardly dare to think about the consequence if we lost the passport!

"Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights..."
James 1:17

It was dark and crowded, not to mention we met a helpful man who spoke a different language! It was really a blessing to me.

I first tell God's love when I was small ago.

Last year, my family went to the beach to play! But my little brother was drowning in the sea. Mom saved my little brother. My little brother was saved. But my Mom is drowning. We couldn't do anything so we just watched mom drowning then my mom slowly past away! I saw everything and my heart was beating fast. Only me and my brother went home quickly and tell everything to Dad .I was sad! Because Mom and Dad were always arguing at home. I was scared. My brother was too little that he couldn't take care by himself.

Later that day, Dad got a stepmother I was scared.I ran to my room with my little brother. The Mother was kind since she cooked the food for me. We were sad and couldn't eat a lot for months. I threw all the food on the floor but she was not angry. She tidied up all the food on the floor.

Next day, the Mother cooked lunch for us. I got it tom School! There was a note written by mom.'Do you like it?' I was shocked! When I went back home, tears came from my eyes! This is my first times felt love from Mom.

I think it is the love from god!. Though I lost m,y mum but I have a stepmother. I feel love every day.

"We love because he first loved us." - 1 John 4:19
